If he is again superseded, on grounds other than qualification, in the forthcoming meeting of the Selection Board or DPC, he shall be considered for compulsory retirement or removal from the service of the NTC after following the applicable rules. However, compulsory retirement from service shall be subject to having qualifying length of service for grant of pension.
- (7) The recommendations of Selection Board or DPC shall be placed before the appointing authority for consideration and approval.

(8) Human resource department shall notify and circulate the promotion to all departments of NTC and a copy of the communication of promotion shall be placed in the personal file of the regular employee concerned.

(9) A regular employee who is on deputation shall be considered for promotion only on his return to NTC. He may be given intimation and asked to return before his case comes up for consideration for promotion in accordance with his seniority position and where he fails to return he shall not be considered for promotion. Such an officer shall have to earn PER as specified in the Table below after his return and before he is considered for promotion, namely:—

TABLE

Deputation period	Period of PER after expiry of deputation
(1)	(2)
Less than 1 year	3 months
From 1 year to 3 years	6 months
Above 3 years	12 months

(10) The clearance or approval already accorded in the past to promote a regular employee on deputation shall lapse automatically if he fails to return on expiry of the deputation period already approved by the NTC.

(11) A regular employee availing ex-Pakistan leave including extraordinary leave as well as similar leave within Pakistan for less than one year shall be considered for promotion by the concerned Selection Board or DPC. However, on approval by the appointing authority, the promotion of such regular employee shall actualize only on return from leave.

(12) A regular employee availing ex-Pakistan leave including extraordinary leave as well as similar leave within Pakistan for not less than one year shall be considered by the respective Selection Board or DPC upon earning of PER for twelve months after return from leave.

(13) If no suitable regular employee is available within the channel of promotion relevant to a particular vacancy, the vacancy may be filled in through open advertisement on contract as per criteria of initial appointment specified in Schedule-I.

25. Incentive promotion.—(1) Regular employees who have demonstrated satisfactory performance on the same post and pay group or NPS but could not be promoted during last ten years qualifying service due to non-availability of vacancy or they do not have further channel of promotion may be considered for grant of incentive promotion to the next NPS subject to following conditions, namely:—

- (a) the grant of incentive promotion, under this regulation, shall not be claimed as a matter of right. Incentive promotion shall be allowed with approval of the Chairman NTC;
- (b) regular employee concerned must fulfil all preconditions for promotion to next higher post as specified in Schedule-I, and these regulations;
- (c) no minor or major penalty awarded during last ten years;
- (d) upon grant of incentive promotion, pay of the regular employee concerned shall be fixed in next NPS on next above stage along-with other permissible allowances as admissible to the incumbents of that higher pay group, but no premature increment shall be allowed on grant of incentive promotion;
- (e) Two consecutive incentive promotions on the same post shall not be admissible. However, employee concerned will be considered for regular promotion, as per Schedule-I on availability of vacancy; and
- (f) on grant of incentive promotion under this regulation, the designation and job description of the regular employee concerned shall not be changed, and liveries staff shall continue to draw washing allowance.

(2) Qualifying length of service in this regulations means the service excluding period of leave without pay.

26. Acting charge appointment.—Where a regular vacancy in NPS-8 and above, reserved for promotion, occurs and no regular employee in that cadre is found eligible for regular promotion and it is considered to be in the interest of the NTC to fill it, the appointing authority may appoint the senior most regular employee in the cadre, otherwise eligible except having requisite length of service for promotion, to that post on acting charge basis, subject to following conditions, namely:—

- (a) acting charge appointment shall be made against posts, which are likely to fall vacant for a period of not less than six months;

(4) Every person preferring an appeal should do so separately and in his own name.

(5) Every appeal preferred under these regulations shall contain all material statements and arguments relied upon by the appellant, shall contain no disrespectful or improper language and shall be complete in itself.

(6) Every appeal shall be submitted through head of the office to which the appellant belongs or belonged and through the authority from whose order the appeal is preferred and where an appeal is addressed to an inappropriate authority or has not been submitted through proper channel, the HR department or, as the case may be, the regional department shall be responsible to forward it to the appropriate appellate authority.

(7) Every appeal shall be submitted within a period of thirty days of the communication of the order appealed against.

(8) On receipt of an appeal under these regulations, the appellate authority shall consider-

- (a) whether the facts mentioned in the appeal against the orders have been established;
- (b) whether the facts established afford sufficient ground for taking action; and
- (c) whether the penalty is excessive, adequate or inadequate and,

(9) After such consideration, shall confirm, set aside or modify the previous order and the appellant shall be informed of the reasons for passing such order.

(10) The authority from whose order an appeal is preferred under these regulations shall give effect to any order made by the appellate authority.

(11) An appeal may be withheld by an authority not lower than the authority from whose order it is preferred, if

- (a) it is an appeal in a case in which no appeal lies under these regulations; or
- (b) it does not comply with the provisions of sub-regulations (5) or (6); or
- (c) it is not preferred within the time specified in sub-regulation (7) and no reasonable cause is shown for the delay; or
- (d) it is a repetition of a previous appeal and is made to the same appellate authority by which such appeal has been decided and no new facts or circumstances are adduced which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case.

(12) In every case in which an appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the facts and the reasons for it.

(13) An appeal withheld on account only of failure to comply with the provisions of sub-regulation (5) may be resubmitted within one month of the date on which the appellant is informed of the withholding of the appeal and, if resubmitted in a form which complies with those provisions, as the case may be, shall not be withheld.

(14) Every appeal which is not withheld under these regulations shall be forwarded to the appellate authority with an expression of opinion by the authority from whose order the appeal is preferred.

(15) A list of appeals withheld under these regulations, with reasons for withholding them, shall be forwarded quarterly by the withholding authority to the appellate authority.

(16) An appellate authority may call for any appeal admissible under these regulations which has been withheld by a subordinate authority and may pass such orders thereon as it considers fit.

(17) Nothing in these regulations shall operate to deprive any person of any right of appeal which he would have had if these regulations had not been made, in respect of any order passed before they came into force.

(18) All appeals pending immediately before the coming into force of these regulations shall continue to be heard and decided in accordance with the regulations in force prior to commencement of these regulations.

(19) All appeals filed before appellate authority shall be decided within sixty days of filing.

CHAPTER-VIII

RETIREMENT AND RESIGNATION

55. Retirement from service.—(1) A regular employee shall retire from service on such date after he has completed twenty years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits as the appointing authority may in the public interest direct.

(2) Where no direction is given under sub-regulation (1), the regular employee shall retire on completion of sixtieth year of his age.

(3) No direction under sub-regulation (1) shall be made until the regular employee has been informed in writing of the grounds on which it is proposed to make the direction and has been given reasonable opportunity of showing the cause against the said direction.

(4) A regular employee may retire from service on medical grounds on the date on which he has been declared medically un-fit by medical board.

(5) A regular employee may opt to retire from service before attaining the age of superannuation on completion of twenty-five years' service qualifying for pension by submitting written intimation at least six months before the date on which he intends to retire.

(6) Application for leave preparatory to retirement (LPR), if due after completion of the twenty-five years' service qualifying for pension, shall be submitted three months prior to commencement of the LPR.

(7) If a regular employee desires to leave service before completion of his twenty-five years' service qualifying for pension, he may do so by tendering resignation from service and as such he shall not be entitled to any pensionary benefits.

(8) A regular employee who proceeded on LPR or submitted application for voluntary retirement may before his retirement withdraw his consent for voluntarily retirement with the approval of the appointing authority.

56. Pensionary benefits.—(1) Regular employees, upon retirement, shall be entitled to pensionary benefits as admissible these regulations.

(2) An in-house fund namely “Regular Employees’ Pension Fund” of the corporation is being maintained for the purpose of payment of retirement benefits. The Fund is being managed by a Board of Trustees as per trust deed.

57. General Provident Fund.—An in-house fund namely “Regular Employees’ General Provident Fund” is being maintained in the corporation. The Fund is being managed by a Board of Trustees as per trust deed. However, amount of subscription towards General Provident Funds shall be in accordance with these regulations.

58. Resignation.—(1) An employee wishing to terminate his appointment shall submit his resignation in writing to the appointing authority, but shall continue to be in the service of the NTC until his resignation is formally accepted by the appointing authority.

(2) The option of resignation under sub-regulation (1) shall not be available to an employee who is under a bond to serve the NTC for a specified period.

(3) Decision about acceptance or non-acceptance of resignation of an employee against whom disciplinary proceedings are pending or are contemplated against him shall be taken by the appointing authority keeping in view the nature of disciplinary proceedings.

(4) An employee may withdraw resignation before its acceptance by the appointing authority.

(5) Where an employee who has executed a service bond and intends to resign or leave the service, he shall have to pay the full or proportionate amount falling short of the bond, as the case may be, before acceptance of his resignation.

(6) Resignation of an employee who has executed a service bond wishing to leave the service while on training abroad shall not be accepted without payment of all the expenses, if any, incurred or assessed on his training abroad including the travelling expenses, in addition to his other obligations under the bond or otherwise, which shall be recovered from him or his sureties.

59. Termination of service.—(1) The service of an employee may be terminated without notice in following cases, namely:—

- (a) during the initial or extended period of probation provided that where such employee is appointed by promotion on probation or, as the case may be, is transferred from one cadre or post to another cadre or post, his services shall not be so terminated so long as he holds a lien against his post in such cadre or post, as the case may be; or

- (b) on completion of initial or extended period of his employment contract; or
- (c) if the appointment of a person is made on ad-hoc or contract basis to a post, his employment shall be terminable on assumption of charge or duty of that post selected for regular appointment of a person on the recommendations of the selection board or committee, as the case may be; or
- (d) where, on the abolition of a post or reduction in the number of posts in a cadre, the services of an employee are required to be terminated, the person whose services are terminated shall ordinarily be the one who is the most junior in such cadre.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (a), (c) and (d) of sub-regulation (1) the services of an employee shall be liable to termination on fourteen days' notice or forfeiture of pay in lieu thereof and in case of clause (b) before expiry of the contract, such services shall be liable to termination in accordance with the terms and conditions of his contract.

CHAPTER-IX

(b) Spouses of an employee shall be deemed to be dependent upon him so long as he is not judicially separated. If the dependents of an employee are in the service of the Government, semi Government, autonomous body, he shall not be allowed to enjoy the medical facilities from both the organizations;

(c) parent of an employee include father and mother;

(d) un-married sons and step sons of an employees shall be deemed to be dependent upon him till they complete the age of 21 years;

(e) daughters and step daughters of an employee shall be deemed to be dependent upon him till they are married; and

(f) mentally retarded family members declared as such by a competent authority shall be deemed to be dependent on the employee and notwithstanding the age factor stipulated above.

2. Indoor treatment.—(1) All employees and their dependents warranting admission and indoor treatment shall be entitled to obtain the treatment from any Government or defence services hospitals as paying patients.

(2) In smaller cities and towns, the employees and their dependents shall be entitled to obtain indoor treatment from district and tehsil hospitals as paying patients.

(3) In case appropriate treatment is not available in hospitals specified in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), the Chairman NTC may approve the treatment in any other hospital in the country.

(4) In case an employee or his dependents obtain emergency treatment from nearest private hospital to save the life of a patient, such cases shall be scrutinized by the regional or HQs medical committee, as the case may be. The committee may be constituted by the concerned regional GM who may be the President of the committee. The committees may determine amount whether full, partial or equivalent to the government, defence or panel hospital be reimbursed to the employee keeping in view the nature of emergency in the private hospital. Such cases may finally be approved by Chairman NTC.

(5) Panel hospitals.—In order to facilitate the employees, Chairman NTC may approve any hospital to be placed on panel. Reference slips to the panel hospitals may be issued by the authorized signatories on provision of proper advice of the concerned doctor that he needs admission or hospitalization.

(6) Treatment abroad.—The rules applicable to civil servants of the Federal Government for treatment abroad of employees shall apply, with necessary modifications.

3. Entitlement.—The employees specified in column (2) of the Table below shall be entitled to wards, private wards or room as specified in column (3) thereof, namely:—

TABLE

Sr. No.	NPS	Entitlement
(1)	(2)	(3)
1.	NPS 1 to NPS-5	General or Private Ward
2.	NPS-6 and NPS-7	Officer's Private Ward or Room
3.	NPS-8 and NPS-9	Private Room
4.	NPS 10 and above	VIP or Private Room

4. Reimbursement of cost of indoor treatment.—(1) Wherever permissible payment to the hospital shall be made directly through crossed cheque after verification of the bills. All medical claims pertaining to the regions shall be scrutinized and pre-audited by the appropriate financial officer for payment in accordance with the powers vested under delegation of powers.

(2) In case a hospital demands advance payment, the sanction for the same shall be obtained. The money shall be deposited in the hospital and adjusted in manner prescribed in sub paragraph (1) after completion of the treatment.

(3) Where a hospital insists on receiving payments of its medical dues prior to the discharge of a patient, the concerned Regional Director or Director (Admin) should make immediate arrangements to deposit the hospital dues by cheque. However, in all such cases an estimated bill by the concerned hospital authorities shall be obtained by the employee before approval of advance. Where the patient has already paid the hospital dues from his pocket, the reimbursement, as per entitlement, shall be made on provision of original discharge certificate and bills duly verified by the doctor concerned.

(4) In case a hospital providing treatment does not accept any of the above method of payment, the NTC office concerned shall make the payment in full. The employee shall render a certificate that he shall be responsible for any discrepancies in the bill. Such bills shall be post audited.

5. Critical prolong medical treatment.—Reimbursement against critical medical treatment for disease such as hepatitis B and C, cardiac diseases (in case the patient undergone angioplasty or bypass or some other cardiac operation or procedures), cancer, kidney ailments, diabetes (insulin only) and TB shall continue for OPD patients as per actual. Such treatment shall be allowed from government and defence hospitals. Employee may obtain prior approval of the treatment by providing proper prescription or certificate by the concerned specialist that he needs prolong treatment. Latest pathological reports along-with estimate of treatment may also be provided, and Chairman NTC may approve such cases. Critical prolong medical treatment may be supervised by the committee comprising three officers not below the NPS-7 (i.e. one officer from Admin and one each from Finance and Technical side).

6. Indoor medical treatment to retired employees for self and spouse and outdoor medical allowance to retired employees.—Indoor medical treatment to retired employees for self and spouse may be allowed in government, defence and panel hospitals whereas outdoor medical allowance may be paid as admissible to the retired civil servants of the Federal Government from time to time.
